RUMOR THAT GOVERNOR BARNES IS TO BE OUSTED REVIVED

UNFAVORABLE REPORT MADE

THE GOVERNOR HELD TO HAVE VI. OLATED THE LAW.

His Appointment of Will Walker to a Position After Walker Had Been Ousted by President McKinley Is Luid Up Against the Governor.

WASHINGTON, July 28 - (Special.) The rumor that General Barnes, of Oklahoma will soon be removed has been actively revived. It is said that Assistant Attorney General Vandeventer, for the interior de partment, has rendered an opinion to the secretary of the interior finding that Governor Barnes has violated the law in a num ber of measures which have figured in the charges that have been pending for some time. Secretary Hitchcock and Judge Vandeventer both decline to discuss the matter.

Another grievance which has found expression recently against the governor is that he appointed William Walker, late Indian agent at the Kiowa and Comanche agency, to the position of supervisor of school lands, at $100 a month. Walker was removed by executive order on charges affecting his management of the agency and his appointment by the governor under the territorial administration is represented as an affront to the president.
Secretary of State Jenkins, of Oklahoma, has been in town several days fighting the proposed appointment of George A. Outcelt as supervisor of census for the terri-tory. Some of the friends of Secretary Jenkins have backed up his opposition by Except for this, opposition is weak. Mr. Jenkins told Director Merriam that Outcelt is incompetent and has an unsatisfactory

Merriam, it is understood, expressed his strong disapproval of Jenkins' course in coming here to fight Outcelt after having entered a conference with Delegate Flynn and Governor Barnes to decide upon a suitable man. Outcelt was the product of an agreement between Barnes and Flynn, after they were urged to drop their individual favorites. Jenkins entered the con-ference, it is said, but bolted when his colleagues decided upon Outcelt.

Nevertheless, Jenkins' statements regarding their choice have made such an im on on Merriam that he wired Flynn to-day that he must satisfy him as to Outqualification before he would appoint

GREAT CASTOR BEAN MARKET.

More Shipped From Perry, O. T., Than From Any Other City in the Country.

PERRY, O. T., July 28 .- (Special.) This city, the county seat of Noble county, bears the distinction of being the greatest shipping point for castor beans United States. The experience of growers has shown that the plant thrives as wel in the red loam common in this locality as in the black limestone loam of Kan-

In 1879 75 000 bushels of castor beans we shipped from Perry, the whole yield hav-ing been secured from the territory adja-cent to this city. Last year's yield was hardly as heavy, and from present indications the output of the coming season will be about the same as in 1838. General conditions, as well as the acreage, are about the same. The season for castor beans ditions, as well as the acreage, are about the same. The season for castor beams commences about August 1 and continues until frost is on the ground.

The absence of a pretection against foreign beams denies shippers the highest price for the beam, which otherwise would be secured. The wild Indian beams also bring a price, which also lowers that received by the growers and shippers. From Perry shipments are made direct to Kansas City, where the beams are manufactured into the plant's productive fluid, castor oil. The Oklahoma beams in 1897 commanded it per bushel, but last year the price ranged from 30 to 30 cents.

The Perry beams are grown in the largest quantities in Payne and Pawnee counties, along the Cimarron river. Perkins, Stillwater, Jennings and Pawnee are all in the castor beam district of Oklahoma. This year's yield will come largely from the vicinity of Pawnee. The industry is more profitable than others in localities not directly accessible to railroad lines, because of the small expense of transportation to shipping points.

George A. Masters, the heaviest shipper in the chief shipping point of the country, predicts a profitable season for the growers of castor beans, although it probably will not equal that of two years ago.

Harry Barnes Joins His Regiment. GUTHRIE, O. T., July 28.—(Special.)
Harry C. Barnes, who has been commissioned as a first lieutenant in the regular army, left to-day for Fort Logan, Col., to join the Thirty-fourth infantry, to which he has been assigned. Oklahoma Notes.

Thieves broke into the county vault at Taloga Tuesday night and relieved the county of $11. William Luster, a prominent farmer liv-ing near Mulhall, has gone insane and has been incarcerated at Guthrie. A fellow who evidently expects to "batch it" touched a Perry merchant for an old broom and five gallons of gasoline. This is the season of the year when the county editor announces that the farmer who brings him the biggest watermelon will get a year's subscription free. The contests this year are more spirited than usual. Oklahoma isn't doing anything by halves and makes no exception in the growing of her melons.

halves and makes no exception in the growing of her melons.

"There is no office in the gift of Oklahoma people that would tempt me," says Frank Greer. "I am not after anything and don't expect to be." There are a good many people who would like to see Greer in congress, but they probably will agree after all that he is too valuable a man to bury away in a political office.

And now comes the report that many of the cornfields of Kansas have yielded most of their product and the people will have to look elsewhere for their carbon. This condition positively explains the activity of the railroads in Oklahoma. The roads need coal and the territory has it in advance. The fact of the matter is that Oklahoma has the best of everything and the people are finding it out.

CLOSE OF THE ASSEMBLY.

Successful Session Came to an End With a Patriotic Demonstration Yesterday. OTTAWA, KAS., July 28 .- (Special.) The Chautauqua assembly, which has been in session here since the 17th, closed to-day with a patriotic demonstration. Early this norning flags were displayed before the tents of the campers, and loyal Chautauquans were decked with red, white and blue flags and knots of ribbon. The regu-duans were decked with red, white and blue flags and knots of ribbon. The regular routine was carried out this morning. This afternoon, however, the place put on a decided holiday appearance. The Ottawa band and the Lynden "Bald Heads" played in the park, and met the trains as they came in.

Major General J. K. Hudson, from Topeka, presided at the meeting that was held in the tabernacle this afternoon, Governor Stanley being unable to be present. Eugene Ware, of Topeka, was also unable to be present.

Major McClaughrey, the speaker of the afternoon, gave a rousing talk upon the "Boys of 'si and Their Boys." He praised the soldier of the older war, who appears to-day in the blue uniform of the G. A. R. organization, and had no less kind words to speak of the young recruit who is to-day adding to the reputation of the United States. The other speaker of the afternoon was Hon. J. R. Burton, who made a good talk.

To-night a large attendance of both town people and visitors was present to see the picture play of a "Capital Courtship."

TOPEKA, July 28 .- (Special.) The attorney general's office to-day decided to go after the Underwriters' Association, of Atchison. This association is composed of the local insurance agents of Atchison, and was organized for the avowed purpose of "furnishing information" regarding insurance rates to all the agents of that town Assistant Attorney General B. H. Tracy, however, holds that the real purpose of the organization is to effect a combine and maintain a uniform rate of insurance in Atchison, contrary to the provisions of the anti-trust law. In other words, he holds that the association is Ulgaral and its operthe anti-trust law. In other words, he holds that the association is illegal and its operation must cease. In the event the association does not dissolve and cease doing business upon being notified of the opinion of Mr. Tracy, he will immediately begin proceedings against its members, and also against it as a corporation, to prevent it from continuing its operation.

SPAIN'S COLONIAL TRADE.

She Shipped $40,000,000 Worth Goods to Cuba, Philippines and Porto Rico Annually.

WASHINGTON, July 28,-(Special.) Cuba Porto Rico and the Philippines afforded a market for over $40,000,000 worth of Spanish goods per annum, according to a state-ment of the British consul at Barcelona, just received by the treasury bureau of statistics. About three-fourths of this amount was in manufactured goods, and considerably more than one-half of this market was that of Cuba alone. According to the statement which Consul Roberts sends to the British foreign office, dated June 18, 1899, the exports of Spain to Cuba in 1895 amounted to 124,451,575 pesetas; to Porto Rico, 37,660,869 pesetas, and to the Philippines, 38,357,757, making a total of 210,480,241 pesetas; and accepting the value of the peseta at 20 cents makes a total of $42,095,048. Of the 134,451,575 pesetas' value of goods exported to Cuba in 1896, 82,652,063 pesetas, according to Consul Roberts, consisted of manufactured goods, 50,850,556 provisions, and 365,025 of raw materials. Of the 37,690,899 pesetas value of goods exported from Spain to Porto Rico in 1896, the value of 29,107,977 pesetas was manufactured goods, 8,401,591 provisions, and 151,321 pesetas raw materials. To the Philippines, of the 33,557,757 pesetas value of goods exported from Spain, the value of 34,250,892 pesetas was manufactured goods, 4,670,557 provisions, and 35,308 raw materials. Totalizing the three colonies, Consul Roberts finds that of the 210,499,241 pesetas value of goods exported from Spain to Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines in 1896, the value of 46,610,962 pesetas was manufactured goods, 63,222,624 provisions, and 1,146,655 pesetas raw materials. just received by the treasury bureau of statistics. About three-fourths of this raw materials.

Consul Roberts expresses the opinion that Consul Roberts expresses the opinion that Spanish manufacturers and dealers are not going to give up the markets of Cuba, Porto Rico and the Philippines without a struggle. He also intimates that other nationalities have in the past participated in the so-called Spanish trade with these islands by locating in Spain and thus getting the advantage of low tariff rates into the islands which was originally given to commerce originating in Spain.
